

This was emailed to me on April 17, 2016 From CM Sharon Shropshire.

Greeting Residents,

Fulton County will be holding a series of upcoming meetings to allow the community to give input on the potential South Fulton project for the proposed Transportation Special Purpose Local Option Sales Tax.

The Fulton County Department of Public Work in conjunction with cities of South Fulton, the first meeting was held on Tuesday April 12, at the Jefferson Park Recreation Center, It is not too late for you to give your feedback on projects to be funded through a potential Transportation Special Purpose Local Option Sale Tax (T-SPLOST).

Under the potential Transportation Special Purpose Local Option Sale Tax (T- SPLOST) the City of East Point will receives up to 35 million dollar for the next 5 years as a resident of this city you should have input on any projects that will be funded through the (T-SPLOST). Community feedback will be used to develop a draft list of projects for the potential T-SPLOST funding.

It is very important that you complete the South Fulton T-SPLOST Comment Form by April 26 you can email your comment form to: sshropshire@eastpointcity.org
